

GREELEY RIDER

C. W. HAZELTON, Editor and Proprietor.
E. C. DIXON, M. M. HARRIS, Associate Editors.
J. W. HARRIS, Assistant to the Editor.
A. J. HARRIS, Assistant to the Associate Editors.
A. J. HARRIS, Assistant to the Associate Editors.

Official Paper

Yavapai County.

Take in the following telegrams:

City Assessors Fredericks will next week commence the work of collecting city taxes. He has failed to pay the assessments made on his property.

Marcopha county claims a population of 10,000.

A. R. Morris, C. W. H. Morris, A. D. Goldberg and Johnson Brent arrived from Ash Fork last evening.

Competent judges say that the Sterling mine will prove more than a rival for the Vulture as a gold producing property.

Considerable freight is arriving in town from the line of the railroad, most of it being Spring and Summer merchandise.

Music will be furnished the patrons of the skating rink this evening. Catch on young man and attend with your best girl.

Mr. P. B. Brannon expects to leave for Ash Fork during the coming week, where he intends to permanently locate.

It is said that there are several ladies in Prescott who can do the oldest sport in the matter of deaderly turning jacks in a game of seven-up.

J. L. Fisher to day sold at auction the stock of liquor, together with bar fixtures, etc., of the Eclipse saloon on Montezuma street.

Samuel Henzey, a well known mining man of Turkey Creek, is in town for supplies. He reports several recent and rich strikes in that district.

O. B. Fuller was the only passenger to leave by the Ash Fork stage this morning, while the vehicle for Maricopa went out empty.

The Wizard Oil Musical Troupe gave another performance last evening, which was well attended. It will be repeated this evening.

Uncle Jimmy Moore returned last evening from a week's visit to the Peak. He reports that section processes every indication of enjoying quite a boom during the coming summer.

There will be no meeting of the Territorial Board of Pardon Commissioners on next Monday, owing to the inability of Prison Commissioner W. C. Davis and Attorney General Churchill to attend.

Preaching at the Methodist Episcopal Church, West Prescott, at half past seven tomorrow (Sunday) evening. Subject "The Problem of Spiritual Life, or the Reign of the Holy Spirit." Rev. J. M. Langston, pastor.

Secretary Van Arman has received three hundred copies of the Court Reports of the Supreme Court of this Territory. A copy will be allowed each of the Judges and District Attorneys of the several Counties, free, while all other persons will be required to pay $5 a volume.

Please de galls will be a feature of the last day's entertainment at the races which will take place at the Driving Park during the last week of the present month. Some fine birds we understand have been recently imported for the occasion by several prominent chicken fanciers in Prescott.

A recent Flint, Michigan, paper contains the announcement of the sale of a large lot of fine blooded stock and other property belonging to Chief Justice Sumner Howard, from which it is to be inferred that the Judge has come to Arizona to stay, and will hereafter cast his lot in our state.

At the meeting of the Prescott Grays last evening the following named gentlemen were elected active members of the Company: Charles Cohen, W. H. Ryan, J. M. Jeannie, R. G. Clancy and H. S. Yates. The Company is rapidly increasing in numbers and will doubtless turn out at least as strong on election day.

Secretary Van Arman desires us to state for the benefit of district attorneys and similar officers elected last November, and who may have allowed free of charge any of the compiled laws on demand, the name of the Secretary of the Territory, that owing to the failure of the last Legislature to make any provision for publishing the compiled laws, there are now no copies available for distribution among such officers. The entire number of copies contained in the territorial library at present being but five.

Seven tunnels have been successfully run into the mountains in Los Angeles county and water obtained for irrigation purposes.

Some curious interest, whose numberless and cowardly disposition would shame a hog, last night devoted his energies to stealing household possessions used for the benefit of the coarse inhabitants of Prescott, and the owners of several valuable dogs have to new secure the law of their four-footed pets, although the prompt application of force and other remedies were successfully resorted to in a number of instances. It is a sort of extenuation to be exercised on against the worthless crew which infest our streets, but it is done openly and by the proper authorities, and not by indiscriminately punishing.

THE RACE

We have been asked to correct Rule 2 in the racing rules Thursday in the Horse Companies race, so as to make it read as follows: Distance to be run, 250 yards in all—200 yards to Apaches, the last 50 feet of horse, together with jockey and saddle on page. The company first completing all connections and heading up page to be declared the winner.

Windy and our weather.

Road Bridge ad in another column. It must stand.

John Willoughby, of Walnut Creek, is in town.

J. W. Hallinan, of Williamson Valley, is in town.

Our men will become disengaged June 1st.

Hay sells for $35 a ton in Prescott—good grass.

Cloudy, the plover, is encroaching after a severe attack of pneumonia.

In a quarter of an inch thick was formed last night, and will Arizona be considered a winter climate?

A. K. Mason was the only passenger to leave on this morning's stage for Ash Fork, while G. L. Harter was the only occupant of the north bound vehicle.

Deputy U. S. Internal Revenue Collector Duggett, of Flagstaff, reported on last Saturday from a trip on official business along the line of the Atlantic and Pacific.

James Howey, a Prescott Virginian, who at present is turning his attention to ranching in Walnut Creek, is purchasing supplies in this city.

The Odd Fellow of Prescott proposes to celebrate the establishment of the order in Arizona on its next anniversary, which is on the 27th of this month.

A steady decrease in the number of liquor licenses issued in this County is reported during the last six months, notwithstanding the fact, too, that an Arizona legislature was in session within the county boundaries during two months of the time.

The skating rink on last Saturday evening was crowded by ladies and gentlemen, who, after indulging in skating until 10 o'clock, enjoyed the pleasure of dancing for a couple of hours. The rink has become a very popular resort.

S. C. Rogers, the pioneer school master of Arizona, has recently made a large shipment of wool, and lamb skins to St. Louis. With the shipment Mr. Rogers sent me mountain lion skins, the original owners of which were all killed during the last six months in the vicinity of Walnut Creek.

The Miner to-day received a large invoice of paper and job type, together with an extensive assortment of stationery suited to all classes of plain and fancy job work. With the present facilities the Miner is enabled to turn out the neatest job work of any establishment in Northern Arizona.

We believe we have heretofore made the announcement that hoary headed winter was behaving rather immodestly in lingering so long in the lap of spring, but from the weather of to-day and yesterday we are now inclined to the opinion that it is a case of winter debauching spring.

An accident occurred at Flagstaff, on Friday night, resulting in a partial wreck to the emigrant train on the Atlantic & Pacific road. The emigrant train was standing between the switches when a freight train ran into the rear car. The engine on the freight crushed the emigrant car half way through the caboose. No one was hurt.

"Jakey," who figured prominently as a restauranteur in Prescott during the session of the Legislature, has opened an eating establishment in Tombstone, with a view it is said of dragging the sarks of Savage, Burke, Harwood and other good fellows of Cochise who get away with a sack during the session of the Thirteenth.

The auction of the liquor stock, bar furniture, etc., belonging to the lately closed Eclipse, was resounding this morning. The bidding was uneventful and the prices realized were very low. Walnut faro tables, which originally cost from $95 to $100, being knocked down for $2.50, while liquor appeared to be as little in demand as though Prohibition boom had struck the country.

Secretary Van Arman says that the late Legislature failed to make appropriations to pay for proclamations published before the session. The Secretary says he urged this matter on some of the members, but no steps were taken, and so these newspapers which had published the Governor's election proclamation will have to wait until the next Legislature meets.

Billy Vanderhill, who returned on Saturday from a visit to Turkey Creek, states that in that district there are in the neighborhood of twenty or thirty men who are taking out ore for shipment to Pueblo for reduction. He speaks very highly of the Mogollon claim, on which the lucky owners, O'Neill and Martin, are down a depth of forty feet, with an eight inch vein at the bottom, averaging between $300 and $400.

The gallows on which Berry and Hall suffered the extreme penalty of the law, has been removed from its former location in the yard of the old jail to the Court House, where stored away in the basement, it awaits to transact any legal business which judge and jury see fit to refer it to for trial adjudication. Hereafter it will hold its坐处 in the new jail yard.

W. C. Dawson, who is at present engaged in running the Peck mill on the tailings of the mine of that name, arrived in the city last evening. He informs us that the results so far have been very satisfactory and that he anticipates soon making a big clean up.

The Tombstone papers facetiously announce the arrival in their city of an interesting dandy named Miss Texas Virginia, whom they cordially welcome to Prescott, and state that her mission to that city is for the purpose of procuring medical treatment in the case wherein a prominent character in Prescott during the session of the Legislature will figure as the defendant. Will some one please inform us who the above-mentioned Texas may be?

Sheriff McLean has recently received private advice indicating that that two men had been going in the direction of Walnut Creek, having in their possession the name of W. W. Hutchinson, which was recently added to Phoenix, together with two other horses answering the description of two that were stolen at the same time from the same parties as the men. Sheriff McLean immediately left in pursuit of the supposed robbers, accompanied by George Burton, William Rice and W. W. Hutchinson, but up to the hour of going to press the party had not been heard from.

Several star mail routes in Arizona will be at Washington, July 1.

Few towns in England with under 20,000 inhabitants are boast of a daily paper.

It is somewhat warm at the Needles, the thermometer showing 118 degrees in the shade.

A gymnasium ought to be established at which ladies could go and participate in the attempt to gain muscle.

The Tennessee legislature passed a bill making bull-baiting on Sunday punishable by a fine of $50.

A lieutenant and sixteen members of the regular army are still keeping guard over Gadsden's grave.

Atlantic and Pacific trains have recently delayed at the western end on account of washouts on the Southern Pacific.

The Ayer Mill Company has a contract for furnishing lumber and timbers for the building of the railroad from Duggett to Colton, in California.

The States of Maryland, Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Georgia, Maine, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oregon and West Virginia have never had Lieutenant Governors.

A portion of the surveying party on the Phoenix and Maricopa railroad have arrived at Maricopa, and the work will begin as soon as the necessary arrangements can be completed.

It is said the heart of the average man sends 40,000 pounds of blood through the arteries every hour. When a ruffian threatens drink your heart's blood his eyes are larger than his stomach.

The boundary between Alaska and the British possessions is not permanently settled. When the question comes up for settlement, it may lead to a rupture between this country and England.

The pay of a retired army officer is 75 per cent of the pay allotted to the rank of officer in active service at the time of retirement. The number of officers on the retired list of the army is limited by law to 400.

The Thirteenth Legislative Assembly passed a law authorizing the Supervisors of each County in the Territory to advertise for lowest bids to transport insane persons from their respective counties to Stockton Insane Asylum. A good law.

Chang, the Chinese giant, who is eight feet tall, will marry a Kansas City woman seven feet in height, and they will keep a tea store in St. Louis. We presume that when a St. Louis lady intends to give a high tea she will buy it at their shop.

Paper from the yucca, a fibrous plant found in Arizona, New Mexico and South California, is becoming popular in Great Britain. It is readily bleached, and has a fiber that is almost as strong as hemp. It can be manufactured at about the same cost as paper made from mixed cotton and linen rags.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of strength, purity and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 Wall St., New York.

Secretary Van Arman says that the late Legislature failed to make appropriations to pay for proclamations published before the session. The Secretary says he urged this matter on some of the members, but no steps were taken, and so these newspapers which had published the Governor's election proclamation will have to wait until the next Legislature meets.

Billy Vanderhill, who returned on Saturday from a visit to Turkey Creek, states that in that district there are in the neighborhood of twenty or thirty men who are taking out ore for shipment to Pueblo for reduction. He speaks very highly of the Mogollon claim, on which the lucky owners, O'Neill and Martin, are down a depth of forty feet, with an eight inch vein at the bottom, averaging between $300 and $400.

The gallows on which Berry and Hall suffered the extreme penalty of the law, has been removed from its former location in the yard of the old jail to the Court House, where stored away in the basement, it awaits to transact any legal business which judge and jury see fit to refer it to for trial adjudication. Hereafter it will hold its坐处 in the new jail yard.

W. C. Dawson, who is at present engaged in running the Peck mill on the tailings of the mine of that name, arrived in the city last evening. He informs us that the results so far have been very satisfactory and that he anticipates soon making a big clean up.

The Tombstone papers facetiously announce the arrival in their city of an interesting dandy named Miss Texas Virginia, whom they cordially welcome to Prescott, and state that her mission to that city is for the purpose of procuring medical treatment in the case wherein a prominent character in Prescott during the session of the Legislature will figure as the defendant. Will some one please inform us who the above-mentioned Texas may be?

Sheriff McLean has recently received private advice indicating that that two men had been going in the direction of Walnut Creek, having in their possession the name of W. W. Hutchinson, which was recently added to Phoenix, together with two other horses answering the description of two that were stolen at the same time from the same parties as the men. Sheriff McLean immediately left in pursuit of the supposed robbers, accompanied by George Burton, William Rice and W. W. Hutchinson, but up to the hour of going to press the party had not been heard from.

Several star mail routes in Arizona will be at Washington, July 1.

Few towns in England with under 20,000 inhabitants are boast of a daily paper.

It is somewhat warm at the Needles, the thermometer showing 118 degrees in the shade.

The thermometer shows 1